General Conditions

Conditions

INSURANCE ACT 2015 - APPLICATION CLAUSE ("WRAPAROUND CLAUSE")

General

1. Unless otherwise indicated, no term of this insurance contract is intended to limit or affect the statutory rights or obligations of any of the parties to this contract under, and/or the effect of, Parts 2, 3, 4 or 5 of the Insurance Act 2015 (the "2015 Act").

2. Any term of this insurance contract which would, but for this clause, put the Insured in a worse position as respects any of the matters provided for in Parts 2, 3 or 4 of the 2015 Act than it would be in by virtue of the provisions of those Parts is, to that extent, of no effect, unless the Insurer has complied with the transparency requirements in Section 17 of the 2015 Act.

3. The Insured should ask the Insurer or its broker for clarification of any matters which are not clear to it regarding the scope of disclosure required or the provisions of this insurance contract.

The duty of fair presentation

4. Before this insurance contract is entered into, the Insured must make a fair presentation of the risk to the Insurer, in accordance with Section 3 of the Insurance Act 2015. In summary, the Insured must:

- a) Disclose to the Insurer every material circumstance which the Insured knows or ought to know. Failing that, the Insured must give the Insurer sufficient information to put a prudent insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries in order to reveal material circumstances. A matter is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer as to whether to accept the risk, or the terms of the insurance (including premium); and
- b) Make the disclosure in clause (4)(a) above in a reasonably clear and accessible way; and
- c) Ensure that every material representation of fact is substantially correct, and that every material representation of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

5. For the purposes of clause (4)(a) above, the Insured is expected to know the following:

- a) If the Insured is an individual, what is known to the individual and anybody who is responsible for arranging his or her insurance.
- b) If the Insured is not an individual, what is known to anybody who is part of the Insured's senior management; or anybody who is responsible for arranging the Insured's insurance.
- c) Whether the Insured is an individual or not, what should reasonably have been revealed by a reasonable search of information available to the Insured. The information may be held within the Insured's organisation, or by any third party (including but not limited to the broker, subsidiaries, affiliates or any other person who will be covered under the insurance). If the Insured is insuring subsidiaries, affiliates or other parties, the Insurer expects that the Insured will have included them in its enquiries, and that the Insured will inform the Insurer if it has not done so. The reasonable search may be conducted by making enquiries or by any other means.

Critical information

6. It is a condition precedent to the Insurer's liability under this insurance contract that the material facts detailed under the "Critical Information" section of the policy are true and accurate at the time of inception of the contract.

Breach of warranty: suspensory

7. If the Insured breaches a warranty in this insurance contract, the Insurer's liability under the contract shall be suspended from the time of the breach until the time when the breach is remedied (if it is capable of being remedied). The Insurer will have no liability to the Insured for any loss which occurs, or which is attributable to something happening, during the period when the Insurer's liability is suspended.

Terms not relevant to the actual loss

8. Where: (i) there has been a failure to comply with a term (express or implied) of this insurance contract, other than a term that defines the risk as a whole; and (ii) compliance with such term would tend to reduce the risk of loss of a particular kind and/or loss at a particular location and/or loss at a particular time, the Insurer cannot rely on the breach of such term to exclude, limit or discharge its liability if the Insured shows that the failure to comply with such term could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred.

Fraudulent claims clause

9. If the Insured makes a fraudulent claim under this insurance contract, the Insurer:

- a) Is not liable to pay the claim; and

Marine Liability Policy No: 110718 DB

- b) May recover from the Insured any sums paid by the Insurer to the Insured in respect of the claim; and
- c) May by notice to the Insured treat the contract as having been terminated with effect from the time of the fraudulent act.

10. If the Insurer exercises its right under clause (9)(c) above:

- a) The Insurer shall not be liable to the Insured in respect of a relevant event occurring after the time of the fraudulent act. A relevant event is whatever gives rise to the Insurer's liability under the insurance contract (such as the occurrence of a loss, the making of a claim, or the notification of a potential claim); and,
- b) The Insurer need not return any of the premiums paid.

Fraudulent claims - group insurance

11. If this insurance contract provides cover for any person who is not a party to the contract ("a covered person"), and a fraudulent claim is made under the contract by or on behalf of a covered person, the Insurer may exercise the rights set out in clause (9) above as if there were an individual insurance contract between the Insurer and the covered person. However, the exercise of any of those rights shall not affect the cover provided under the contract for any other person.

Remedies for breach of the duty of fair presentation

12. If, prior to entering into this insurance contract, the Insured shall breach the duty of fair presentation, the remedies available to the Insurer are set out below.

a) If the Insured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless:

- i) The Insurer may avoid the contract, and refuse to pay all claims; and,
- ii) The Insurer need not return any of the premiums paid.

b) If the Insured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, the Insurer's remedy shall depend upon what the Insurer would have done if the Insured had complied with the duty of fair presentation:

- i) If the Insurer would not have entered into the contract at all, the Insurer may avoid the contract and refuse all claims, but must return the premiums paid.
- ii) If the Insurer would have entered into the contract, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the contract is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset, if the Insurer so requires.
- iii) In addition, if the Insurer would have entered into the contract, but would have charged a higher premium, the Insurer may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim (and, if applicable, the amount already paid on prior claims). In those circumstances, the Insurer shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.

13. If, prior to entering into a variation to this insurance contract, the Insured shall breach the duty of fair presentation, the remedies available to the Insurer are set out below.

a) If the Insured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is deliberate or reckless:

- i) The Insurer may by notice to the Insured treat the contract as having been terminated from the time when the variation was concluded; and,
- ii) The Insurer need not return any of the premiums paid.

b) If the Insured's breach of the duty of fair presentation is not deliberate or reckless, the Insurer's remedy shall depend upon what the Insurer would have done if the Insured had complied with the duty of fair presentation:

- i) If the Insurer would not have agreed to the variation at all, the Insurer may treat the contract as if the variation was never made, but must in that event return any extra premium paid.
- ii) If the Insurer would have agreed to the variation to the contract, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the variation is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms, if the Insurer so requires.
- iii) If the Insurer would have increased the premium by more than it did or at all, then the Insurer may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Insurer shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.
- iv) If the Insurer would not have reduced the premium as much as it did or at all, then the Insurer may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Insurer shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/reduced total premium}) \times 100$.
